This reunion, which in every way was a success, is said to have been the largest gathering in Washington of the alumni of any University. ment to the campus. The scheme has gone farther than ever before, a bill having been introduced into the legislature on the 19th, to appropriate an amount for this purpose. On the above date three members of the athletic committee went to Lansing with a memorial in support of a project for building a gymnasium at the University of Michigan. This memorial clearly sets forth the different attempts in past years to obtain such an appropriation and asks of the state the small sum (10. 00D) that will be needed to furnish the University with the facilities that are needed to place it more nearly on a level with other institutions of its kind in the matter of providing for the physical well-being of the young men and women who come to its halls for instruction. The statement of the facts of the case as presented in this memorial is supported by the Deans of the several faculties of the University and is no doubt a well devised and effectual document in our favor. There is no doubt, but that a majority of the senate will favor the bill and unless the cry of economy is raised it will in all probability pass the legislature. Through the generosity of Mr. E. E. Myers, a Detroit...
