Excerpt: .legislature, while a third has served two terms in the Texas legislature, being elected by the aid of the votes of Southern white men in a predominantly white community. SOCIAL REFORM. And it is not out of place to say a few words in this connection concerning the remarkable work which this last named graduate, Robert L. Smith has been able to do. His maiden speech in the legislature helped to defeat a bill which has never since been resurrected proposing to compel the railroads of the State to practice race discrimination by obliging their white and colored passengers to occupy separate waiting rooms at the stations. He was also instrumental in securing the passage of an antilynching law with such effective provisions that lynchings in the state have practically ceased. But his most conspicuous service has been rendered to the Negro farmers of his...
