ORATION DELIVERED BEFORE THE CITY AUTHORITIES AT BOSTON: ON THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE NATIONAL, INDEPENDENCE OF AMERICA (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Oration Delivered Before the City Authorities at Boston: On the Anniversary of the National, Independence of America Fellow-Citizens and Friends: It is our first impulse, upon this returning day of our Nations birth, to recall whatever is happiest and noblest in our past history, and to join our voices in celebrating the statesmen and the heroes, the men of thought and the men of action, to whom that history owes its existence. In other years this pleasing office may have been all that was required of the holiday speaker. But to-day, when the very life of the nation is threatened, when clouds are thick about us, and men s hearts are throbbing with passion, or failing with fear, it is the living question of the hour, and not the dead story of the past, which, forces itself into all minds, and will find unrebuked debate in all assemblies. In periods of disturbance like the present, many persons who sincerely love their country and mean to do their duty to her, disappoint the hopes and expectations of those who are actively working in her cause. They seem to have lost whatever moral force they may have once possessed, and to go drifting about from one profitless discontent to another, at a time when every citizen is called upon for cheerful, ready service. It is because their minds are bewildered, and they are no longer truly themselves. Show them the path of duty, inspire them with hope for the future, lead them upward from the turbid stream of events to the bright, translucent springs of eternal principles, - strengthen their trust in humanity, and their faith in...
