Congressional Sales Office, 2001. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)48268497 Subject: Charity laws and legislation -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 bills, each of which encourages charitable giving. I would like to say a few words about such giving in general, and then I will dis-cuss each bill separately. Mr. Chairman, from spiritual counseling to rape crisis centers, charitable organizations are vital to the health and well-being of American citizens. Charity benefits both the giver and receiver in like proportions. The act of giving elevates the heart of the giver. The act of receiving elevates the condition of the recipient. Charity is thus a blessed act that should suffer no discouragement from something so mean as the Tax Code, which contains absurd yet very real disincentives to individuals willing and able to exercise the gift of charity. Such disincentives have terrible consequences in reducing the re-sources available to private organizations. And while it is hard to imagine an individual who gives for the purpose of getting a tax deduction, nevertheless, taxes can affect the amount an individual is willing to give. We now have an excellent opportunity to advance sound tax pol-icy and sound social policy by returning to our Nations historical emphasis on private activities and personal involvement in the well-being of our communities. My three bills will significantly in-crease the resources available to our charitable organizations. The first bill, Mr. Chairman, the Charitable Giving Tax Relief Act, will allow nonitemizers to deduct 100 percent of any charitable contributions up to the amount of the standard deduction. Under current law, while nonitemizers receive...
