Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.One of the biggest problems in the world today is that we have forgotten how to sacrifice. With all the negativity being spread through social media, no wonder we are all so driven to look out just for ourselves! Sometimes it is better to give up our wants for someone else's needs. In the Mountain Road, three friends learn the value of sacrifice and how it is through sacrifice that we learn love, compassion, and respect. Sacrifice isn't easy, that's what makes it a sacrifice. Read along with Yao, Fey, and Shem as they take their annual trip to Glorydale, one by the toll road, and two by the nearly forgotten Mountain Road. Excerpt: The water was icy cold, and the road bed was a full two feet above the surface of the marsh. The stream must have been fed by glacial waters further up the mountain. The rock, while dry, did not mask the temperature of the water that ran beneath it. Yao admired the marsh grasses and the brilliant colors that they displayed, but quickly made his mind up to leave as his feet began to freeze on the icy surface of the stone roadway. He had just picked up his pack to move on when he was startled by the braying of a wild animal off the side of the trail. Yao walked cautiously forward, and when he had come around a bend in the trail, found a small goat trapped in a large thicket of thorny bushes. He could see the dry places that the buck had used to get at some of the sweet marsh grasses. He...
