[...]watched for pursuit. They ll search the bushes first, he said. They ll not think of the machines for a few minutes. We can hit it up along the highway for four or five miles; then we d better turn into a side road and put out the lights and take off the license plates. They ll telephone ahead possibly and give the license number. We were going pretty fast by that time and just at that moment I saw a buggy ahead in the road. Ferd called to me; but it was too late-I had pressed the siren and the very hills echoed. Good heavens, Fan! he said. You ve done it now! We topped a rise just then and Ferd looked back. The puddlers were running along the road toward the place where they had left their cars. It was a[.].
