Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book is not your mother s breastfeeding guide! Why is Breastfeeding So Freaking Hard? is a comprehensive, non-intimidating resource for everything you need to know at the start of and during a successful breastfeeding journey. This humorous, landmark book discusses common (and not so common) breastfeeding challenges and ways to overcome them based on the author s personal breastfeeding experiences and discusses everything from diet and nutrition to intimacy in one easy-to-read reference you will use year after year, and baby after baby. This book also answers questions about going back to work, social stigmas, responding to negative feedback, self-care, tandem nursing and nursing older children, public nursing, helping dad and others bond with baby and much, much more.
