As someone who is about to go into the teaching field, I couldn't be happier with the information in this book. I would have found myself dialing 911 before the end of the year for sure. I highly recommend. - C.M. When I started teaching there was nothing like this book upon which to rely. I would have loved to have had this book to help me get started. Having information, tried and true ideas, and some words of wisdom would have been a gift. I highly recommend this book to anyone who is starting out with Pre-K students who have special needs. - LP Jennifer Chop has written a most useful book. It focuses specifically on teaching young children in the classroom. All teachers struggle when they begin their teaching careers. Whatever their training and experience, there is so much to know and be prepared for right from the first day! Ms. Chop's book is just the ticket for dealing with those challenges. Her suggestions are written in clear and straightforward fashion. -Robert D. Hubbell, Ph.D., Professor Emeritus, California State University, Sacramento Are you teaching preschool special needs children? What, where, and how do you start? Not only do you have the responsibility of teaching young children, which means combing through records for important medical information and goals for each child, but you also have to set up the classroom, communicate with parents, teach language through play, facilitate Circle Time, maintain a calm classroom, and so much more. This book provides systematic strategies for handling all of these challenging tasks. There are numerous solutions and tips-contained in this book-which will help you with the day-to-day classroom experience...
